Supporting Successful Parenting of Parents with Learning and Other Disabilities

Event Description:

This workshop is intended for social workers and others who support parents with disabilities in raising their children. Topics to be covered include:

- Disability 101
- Parenting with a Disability: Past and Present
- Disability Law and Child Welfare: What Social Workers Need to Know
- Overview of the Research on Parents with Intellectual Disabilities
- Evaluating Parents with Disabilities
- Supporting Parents with Intellectual Disabilities and Their Children
- Federal and State Initiatives to Ensure the Rights of Parents with Intellectual Disabilities

Date & Time:

Tuesday
April 26, 2016
8:30 am – 4:00 pm

Location:

WSU Oakland Center, Room 412
33737 W. 12 Mile Rd.
Farmington Hills, MI

Featuring:

Susan Yuan, PhD, Association for Successful Parenting
Robyn Powell, Attorney, Disability Policy Consortium

- 6 Social Work CECs
- Lunch Provided

Registration Information

Please register online by going to this link:
http://forms.wayne.edu/56d5f2a23e9b0

For more information please contact Ann Carrellas at ann.carrellas@wayne.edu or 313-577-8562