

CHARTING THE LIFECOURSE

Join the Michigan Developmental Disabilities Council for a 4-part series on Charting the LifeCourse. This series is for self-advocates, families, and professionals.

August 23, 2023

3:00-4:30pm

Exploring Employment

Getting a job or career doesn't just happen – it takes some planning. Join DD Council Staff and Youth Employment Ambassador Hosts, as we discuss how the Charting the LifeCourse tools will help you have the conversations, explore the vision, and plan the life experiences and supports to set you on your career path.

Learning Objectives:

- Basic overview of the Charting the LifeCourse Framework.
- Learn how the LifeCourse tools will help you think about your career goals.
- See 'real life' examples on how to use the tools to support employment goals.

What can Charting the LifeCourse do for You?

- People are using it to communicate their needs.
- People are advocating for the supports they need to accomplish their goals.
- Parents are setting higher expectations for their children.
- Families are exploring the services and supports they need.
- Parents, siblings, and family members are able to share their ideas, hopes, and fears for the future.

Future Sessions

November 15, 2023, 11am-12:30pm - How Charting the LifeCourse Supports Decision-Making (SDM)

FREE-VIRTUAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

To register for August 23rd, please scan the QR code or click link:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2F3ZTFQ>

If you need assistance with registering, contact:

vincentt1@michigan.gov

Sponsored by DD Council

*Zoom links will be sent one day prior to the event.