

March is Disability Awareness Month!

Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute

MI-DDI & SDS

In celebration of National Disability Awareness Month, The Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute (MI-DDI) and the Student Disability Services (SDS) office will present on the importance of acknowledging disability on the diversity scale. Staff from both MI-DDI and SDS will present on their departments and the work being done to ensure a disability friendly and ADA compliant campus.

Event Topic

MI-DDI and the SDS office at Wayne State University present an informative virtual event on the resources on campus and beyond to ensure academic access and inclusion for students. There will also be a special presentation on neurodiversity.

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY-SA-NC

Event Details:

When: March 29th from 1pm to 2pm

Where: Online (Zoom)

You can register by scanning the QR code!

SDS

Student Disability Services (SDS) serves as a resource for the Wayne State University community to ensure academic access and inclusion for students, supporting a view of disability guided by social, cultural and political forces.

More Info >>

MI-DDI

The Institute's mission is to contribute to the development of inclusive communities and quality of life for people with disabilities and their families through a culturally-sensitive, statewide program of training and education, community support and services, research, and sharing of information.

More Info >>

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

Registration Information

This event is free! To attend this presentation all participants must register.

To register for the training, please click the link below:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYrd-qppjgpH9c5jOg9dxsvqjTn7i-UJNu->