

Detroit Wayne Integrated Health Network and the Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute present the 2020/2021 Empowerment Education Series!

Empowerment Education Training Initiative

The Michigan Empowerment Education Training Initiative is a curriculum that was developed by the Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute (MI-DDI) to address the training needs of Direct Support Professionals (DSPs), service providers, and people with disabilities. For more information about the Empowerment Education Project, please visit:

<https://ddi.wayne.edu/eetraining>.

Webinar Training Topic

Self-Advocates and Direct Support Professionals Working in Partnership to Achieve Life's Dreams
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Presented by Kristen Columbus, LLMSW

This training is designed for people with disabilities and their direct support professionals. By attending the training and working together as a team, participants will learn about effective self-advocacy techniques. The training will also focus on the role of direct support professionals in assisting self-advocates to help them get what they want out of life.

* This training module carries 2 hours of Social Work CEUs and 2 hours of QIDP. ****

Monday

November 16th, 2020

10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Target Audience

Direct Support Professionals, Professionals working with Individuals with I/DD, Peer Mentors, Individuals receiving services, and Advocates.

Requirements

This training webinar is FREE, however, to participate you must REGISTER.

Questions?

If you have any questions, please contact:

Elizabeth Janks, LMSW

Email: e.janks@wayne.edu

Phone: 248-990-6467

Registration Information

All participants must register to attend this webinar. The deadline to register is Friday, November 13th, 2020.

Once you have registered, a pre-test with the link to the presentation will be sent to you.

To register please visit: <https://www.dwctraining.com/Self-Advocates-and-Direct-Support-Professionals-Wo.id.3542.htm>