

Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute

Free Webinar for Direct Support Professionals

Empowerment Education Training Initiative

The Michigan Empowerment Education Project at the Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute (MI-DDI) addresses the training needs of Direct Support Professionals (DSPs), service providers, and people with disabilities.

For more information about the Empowerment Education Project, please visit: <https://ddi.wayne.edu/eetraining>.

Webinar Training Topic

Legislative Advocacy

This webinar was developed for Direct Support Professionals (DSPs) interested in learning more about policy advocacy. Throughout this webinar, you will develop an understanding of how to start your own policy advocacy and policy skills, how to effectively navigate the political landscape, and how to participate in the process of making substantial changes for the DSP workforce.

The Legislative Advocacy module was written by Mark McWilliams, Attorney and Rachel Huddleston, Communications Associate, who are recognized leaders in advocacy on behalf of people with disabilities. Mark and Rachel both work at the Michigan Protection & Advocacy Services, Inc. in Lansing.

Tuesday
December 17th, 2019
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Target Audience

Direct Support Professionals, Home Help Aides, Certified Nursing Assistants (CNAs), Paraprofessionals, People with Disabilities and Family Members.

Requirements

This webinar is FREE, however, PRE-REGISTRATION is required.

Questions?

If you have any questions, please contact:

Elizabeth Janks, LMSW

Email: e.janks@wayne.edu

Phone: (248) 990-6467

Registration Information

To attend this webinar all participants must register online. The deadline to register is 12/13/2019.

Once registered, participants will be emailed a ZOOM link

Registration:

https://waynestate.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6ePSY05vXAbzWrb