

2018-19 MI-DDI Special Interest Forum Series

Continuing the conversation: MI-DDI presents a Special Interest Forum exploring Circles of Support

Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute

Date & Time:

Forum #2: Circles of Support

Thursday

December 20, 2018

5:00 - 6:00 PM

-----

Location:

Online through Zoom

Join us anywhere from your computer or phone

Approved for 1 Social Work CE ($10)

The Special Interest Forum series is a follow-up to the Intelligent Lives premiere at Wayne State University in October 2018. These 1-hour, webinar-style forums will provide a deeper dive into topics touched upon in the film.

Please join MI-DDI on December 20, 2018 for an online Special Interest Forum exploring the topic Circles of Support. Circles of Support can occur at any point in a person's life and are an intentional way to bring classmates, friends or interested community members together to support and encourage relationships and community participation. A guest panel featuring Janice Fialka-Feldman, David Taylor, and Pat Carver will provide practical strategies for creating and sustaining circles in a variety of settings.

Register for this FREE webinar*:

Click to register for the December 20 Session

*1 Social Work CE unit is available for this session for a separate fee ($10)

ddi.wayne.edu

Questions?

Contact:

Michael Bray

mikebray@wayne.edu

or

313-577-4178

Who we are...

The Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute (MI-DDI) is the state of Michigan's University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD) and part of a national network. MI-DDI is dedicated to the development of inclusive communities and quality of life for people with disabilities and their families through a culturally-sensitive, statewide program of interdisciplinary education, community support and services, and research and dissemination of information.